The department should obtain the following items from the employee to submit to ISSS.

- Current curriculum vitae of individual
- Photocopy of individual's diploma (of degree required for position)---please reduce copy to fit on 8 1/2 x 11" paper
- An official or attested translation if the diploma is not in English
- A credential evaluation if the degree is not from a US institution---recommended (Note: USCIS may request this)
- Any licenses, certificates, or other special documentation required for the position.

Additional documentation for Health Care Workers:

- If the position is for a physician with clinical responsibilities who is a Foreign Medical Graduate, provide copies of Steps 1, 2 and 3 of the individual's USMLE scores, ECFMG English language certification, and valid Pennsylvania medical license.

- If the position is for a registered nurse, provide a copy of the individual's valid Pennsylvania RN license and certificate from the International Commission on Healthcare Professions division of CGFNS (Visascreen), certifying that 212(a)(5)(C) INA/8 CFR 212.15(f) requirements have been met.

  There may be other special requirements for other health care worker positions, such as language pathologist or physical therapist. Please consult ISSS in such cases.

- Photocopy of passport page(s) showing photo, biographical data, issuance date, and expiration date

- Photocopies of supporting immigration documents if individual is in the US (single-sided copies, please):
  - Valid I-94 card, front and back (if issued paper I-94) or I-94 printout or US entry/admission stamp in passport (if issued electronic I-94).
  - Supplemental documents if currently holding one of the following nonimmigrant statuses:
    - F status: Copies of current and all previous I-20 forms, pages 1 and 3 (single-sided copies) and Employment Authorization Document (EAD) if authorized for F-1 Optional Practical Training
    - H status: Copies of current and all previous approval notices (form I-797). 2-3 most recent pay stubs if extension, amendment, or change of employer. Change of H-1B employer cases---if the H-1B employment has ended or will have ended before Penn's H-1B approval, consult ISSS immediately.
If you currently hold or have ever held J status: Copies of current and all previous DS-2019 (and IAP-66 forms [front and back], if applicable)—if the individual has ever been subject to 212(e) "two-year home residency requirement," submit evidence of a waiver or of having fulfilled the requirement. If J-2, include copies of current and all previous EADs.

If the employee is in the US and has a spouse or unmarried children under 21 in the US for whom dependent H-4 status is required, the department should obtain the following and submit with the H-1B request packet:

- Form I-539, signed by the main H-4 dependent --- available at http://www.uscis.gov/forms
- Government filing fee for Form I-539 -- http://www.uscis.gov/forms (A separate check payable to "Department of Homeland Security" must be written for the I-539 application fee and separate I-539A biometrics fee(s) for each dependent. These should not be combined with the H-1B I-129 filing fee)
- Valid I-94 card (if issued paper I-94) or US entry/admission stamp in passport (if issued electronic I-94)
- Copy of initial entry stamp in H-4 status from passport or I-94, if applicable
- Copy of passport page(s) showing photo, biographical data, issuance date, and expiration date
- Copies of currently and previously issued documents for current status (i.e., I-797 notices for H, DS-2019(s) for J, or I-20 for F)
- List on a separate sheet, a detailed chronological history of each H-4 dependent’s prior and current stay in the US. Provide the dates and specify each status (e.g., Hiroshi Au, 11/20/2004 – 03/13/2006 in J-2 status & 03/14/2006 – present in H-4 status).
- For spouse, copy of marriage certificate (recommended)
- For child(ren), copy of birth certificate (or other legal papers) confirming H-1B as parent (recommended)

Special Instructions for Completing Form I-539

- Part 1 of form I-539 “Information about you” is to be completed by the family member who is currently in the United States and extending/changing to H-4 status. If there is more than one family member extending/changing to H-4 status, additional members must complete Form I-539A
- Part 3, Number 1—enter same date as H-1B request end date.
- Incomplete, inaccurate, or unsigned applications or checks may result in rejection of application by USCIS—contact ISSS if you have any questions.
